Boek KN 2022

Our story

Since 1846 we are an established producer of gift-wrapping paper and bags in the market, with clients all over the world. The wide variety of our products creates an opportunity to make every present extra special. Each collection, we present new dessins that fit with the latest market trends in dessin and colour.

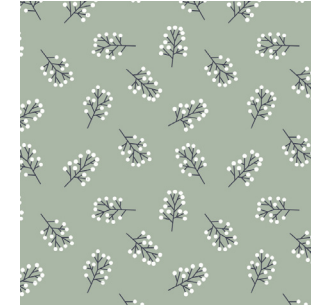

As many other companies, we are challenged to deal with turbulent circumstance in the market. Like high energy costs and getting the raw materials for production are important issues. In addition to these challenges, we continuously strive to keep up with the developments in the field of paper types and production methods. Since sustainability is an important topic in our production routine!

Despite these circumstances we are proud to present our new collection for 2022/2023, in this collection book. Please have a closer look at the new collection, get inspired to start!

Besides our collection, we are more then pleased to help you with special requests, Private Label dessins Etc. Together we can help a company to communicate the identity, by creating a personalized look and feel.
